THE ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS

COVINGTON, LOUISIANA

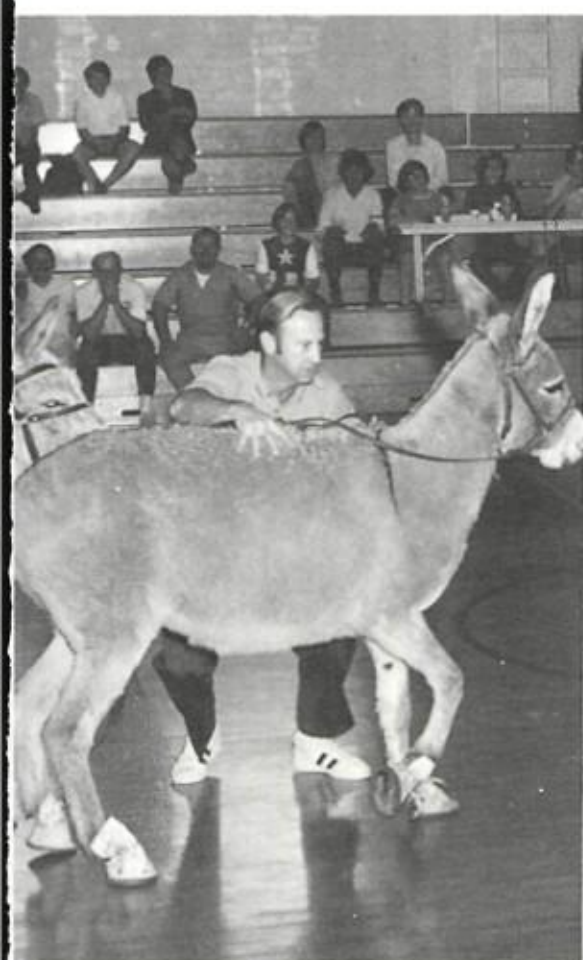

The theme of the 1971-72 Conifer is "US" because that's what this book is all about! You and I are contained in the pages of this yearbook just as you and I are contained in the pages of our mind.

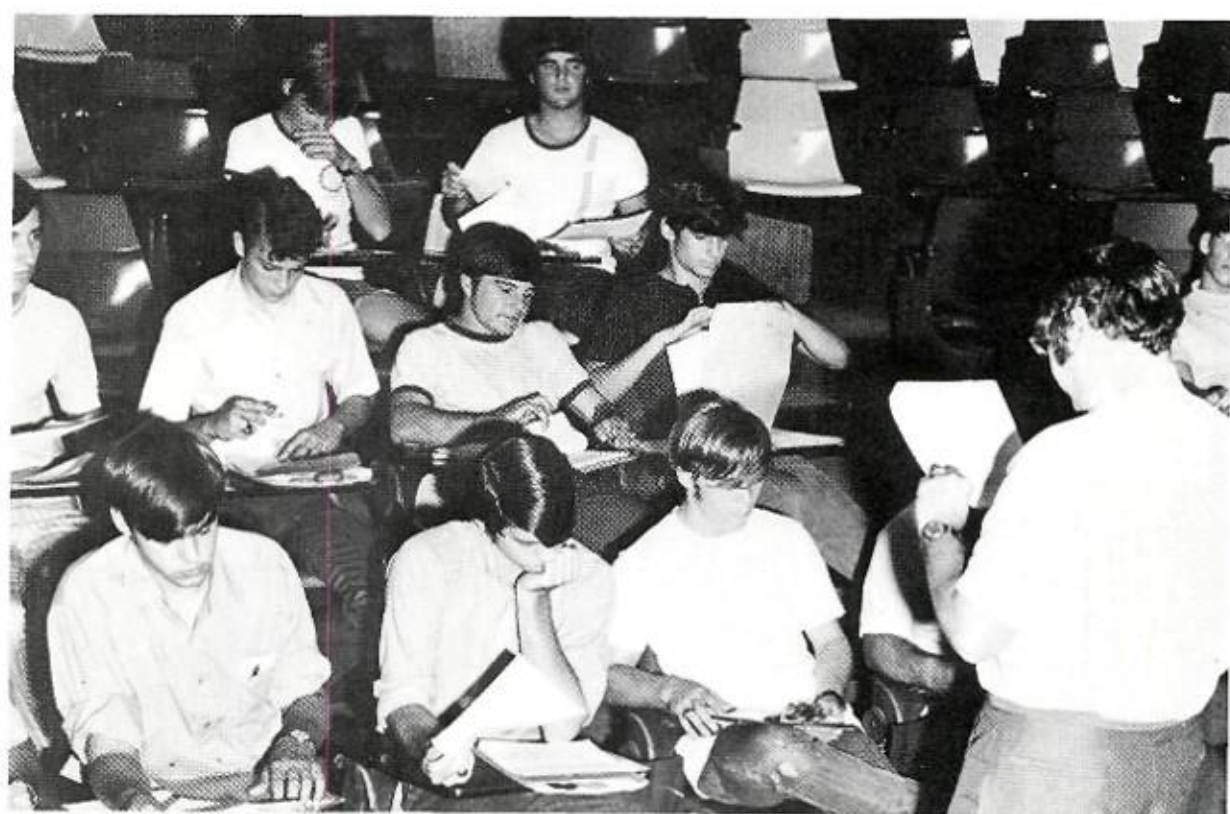

The Conifer Staff dedicates the book to all the members of the 1971-72 St. Paul's School Community. No one person was deserving of a dedication, we all were! No one person merits a standing ovation, we all do!

We remember the year as a year of strife and pain, laughter and tears, smiles and frowns. Yet, behind every one of these strives, pains, laughs, tears, smiles, and frowns, were the people! As we glance through these pages let us remember all the people who made us possible.

The Marching Band at one of their many performances.

The Golden Blues

The St. Paul's Marching Band performed at different times all over Louisiana. Their performances include all football games, The International Rice Festival in Crowley, and the Krewe of Momus parade at Mardi Gras. Providing a welcome touch to the band this year were the St. Paul's Golden Blues, a group of seven hardworking girls from St. Scholastica. This year was the best in the band's history, and the future looks bright.

The St. Paul's Stage Band

The St. Paul's Stage Band reached its highest level of performance in its history. Under the direction of Mr. Roy Mouton and Geoff Roach, the stage band performed throughout south Louisiana, including New Orleans, Slidell, and Covington. The Stage Band explored all idioms of music ranging from swing to contemporary jazz-rock. The St. Paul's Combo, composed of Chuck Boudreaux, flute; Pat Kerber, Guitar; Cody Kellerher, bass; and Billy Howell, drums; received superior ratings at the Loyola University Jazz Festival. These two groups were by far the best that the school had to offer.

The Saint Paul's Prep Quiz Bowl Team again won three straight games to retire as undefeated champions for the second year in a row. A project of WDSU-TV and the Pipe Council of greater New Orleans, the Prep Quiz Bowl is a question and answer game of quick recall. This year's team again coached by Brother Emmet swamped Morgan City, H. G. Higgins, and Landry High School to retire as undefeated champions.

The team was chosen from the top students in the sophomore, junior and senior classes by competitive tryouts. This year's team was composed of four seniors and one junior and thusly next year's team will miss the four graduating members.

We've only just begun to live . . . white lace and promises, a kiss for luck and we're on our way.

We've only just begun. Before the rising sun, we fly. So many roads to choose, we start out walking and learn to run . . . And yet, we've just begun.

Sharing horizons that are new to us, watching the signs along the way, talking it over, just the two of us, working together, day to day . . . Together.

And when the evening comes, we smile. So much of life ahead, we'll find a place where there's room to grow . . . And yes we've just begun.

"Pride" If there is one word that could best describe our season, I would have to select pride. From the first of our two-a-day sessions until the night we won the "jug," it was quite evident that our athletes had learned how great was the price of success and were willing to sacrifice and pay it. This would indicate to me that we were a "proud bunch" in 1971 — School Pride, Team Pride, Self-Pride. It was a season where all of these were witnessed. To single out any individual for special effort would be unfair to the group. I felt our success this year was primarily the cause of a very dedicated and unselfish group of seniors who, although not endowed with great athletes, accepted a challenge and proved that they were a class worthy of a great deal of respect.

This was a season with some very discouraging moments but even in the face of these, we were able to maintain our poise and come back with some big victories. With a varsity season record of 7-3, a JV record of 6-2, and a frosh record of 3-2, we may begin to look toward the future with the same pride and excitement that we wished this season.

Our sincere congratulations should be extended to the senior athletes of "72." In "71" our seniors initiated a "proud to be a winner attitude." In "72" we have kept it alive and even bettered it. The standard that has been set presents a great challenge to the athletes coming. That challenge is one we all must accept.

BASKETBALL 71-72

Picked to be one of the top teams in the district, the 71-72 Wolves came through, true to form. They were one of the best, if not the best, teams to play for St. Paul's in recent years. By pooling individual talent into flawless team play the Wolves ran up an amazing 26-9 overall record. Faced with an uphill battle for district laurels at the end of the year, the Pack won six in a row to merit second place in District 8-AAA.

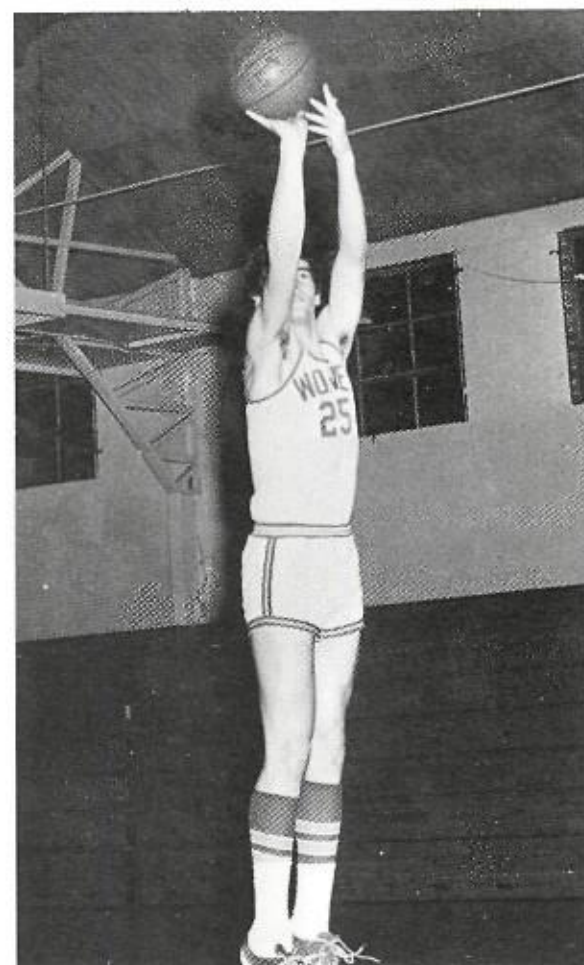

The spirit and determination of the players, the come-from-behind and never-quit attitudes which characterized this year's team may be accredited to Coach Gene Bennett; who instilled his players with a will to win. With Eight players returning next year the Wolfpack shows great promise for winning the District and possibly the State Title in 1973.

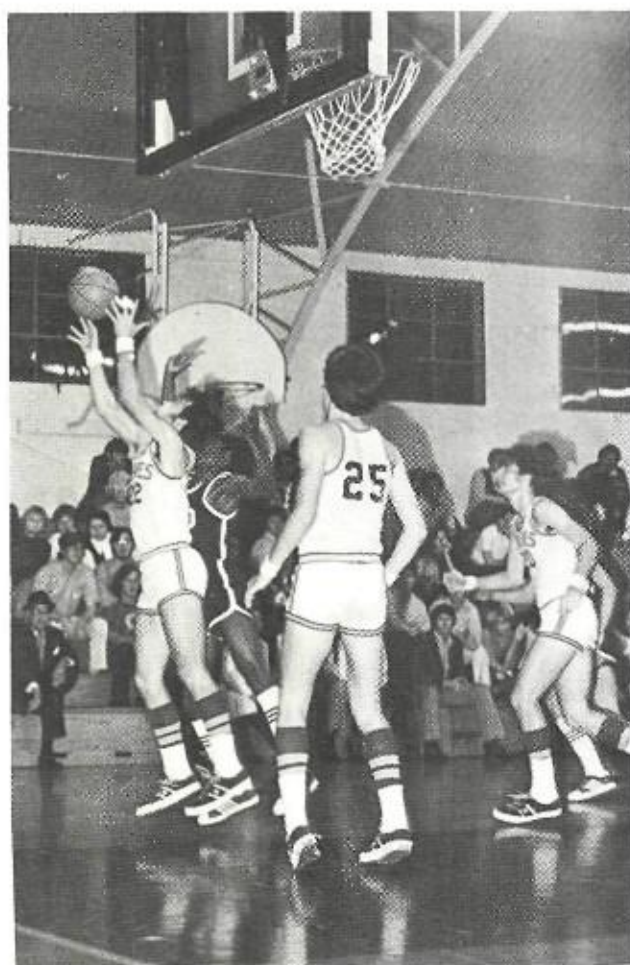

Danny Chassee — Senior:
 Danny was an outstanding floor leader, and as captain led the team to a fine season. All-Tournament in Covington, and Mandeville, 2nd team All District.

Ray Jumonville — Senior:
 Ray showed his ability to step in and perform well throughout the year.

Bobby Chassee — Junior:
 Bobby again led the team in scoring and rebounding. He made All-District for the Second Year and is going to lead the Pack to the district laurels.

Tom Shepherd — Junior:
 Tom was a tremendous asset to the team helping Bobby with the rebounding. And a hope in the future.

Mike Dugger — Junior:
 Mike was a talented and competitive player leading the team as the floor general. Much is expected from this gifted player next year.

Dave Cunningham — Senior:
Dave displayed his fine ability to shoot taking much of the burden in the important games.

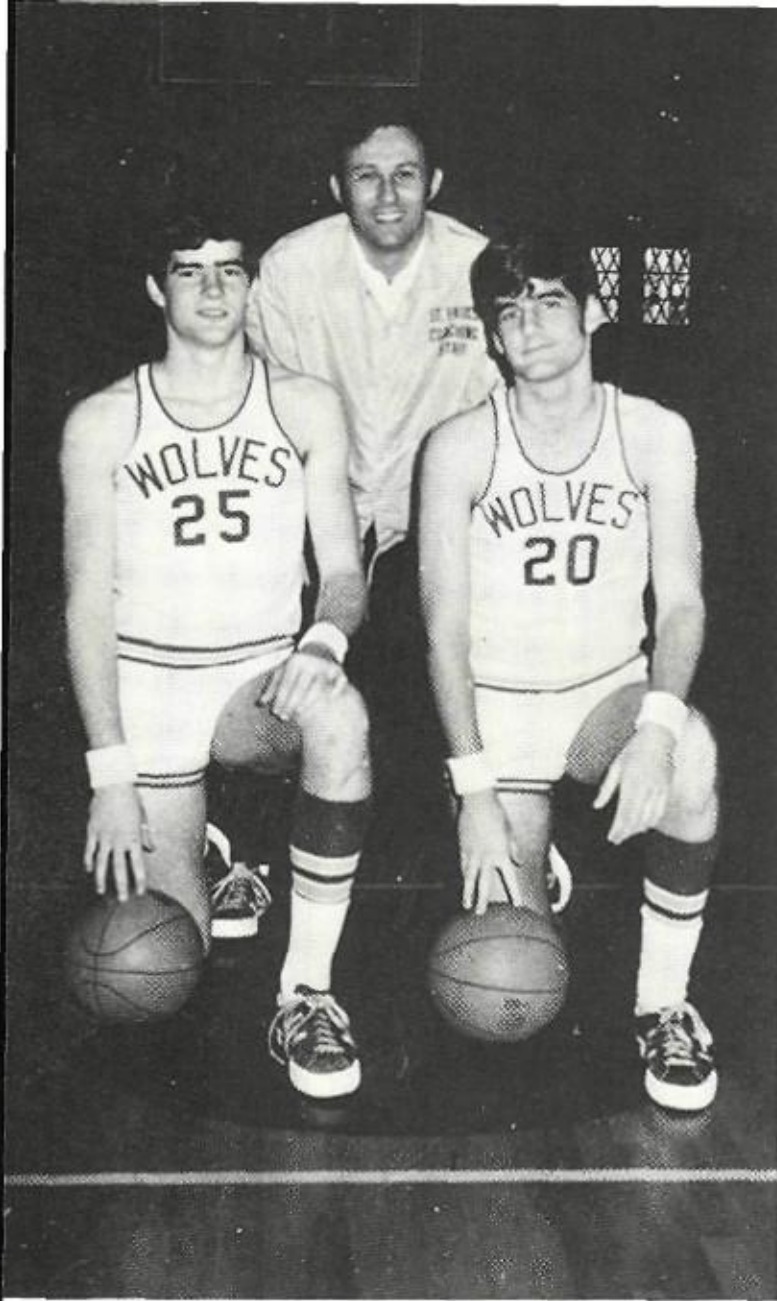

Mike Heap — Junior:
Mike was probably the best shot on the team, and next year will get to use his talent.

Bill Simmons — Senior:
Bill's height and rebounding skill was a positive factor in the Wolves play.

Although at the beginning of the season dreams for a state title were not envisioned, the Saint Paul's Soccer Team came awfully close, through deft skill and above all a will to win. The Lobos finished with a 14-2 record for the season and were ranked second in class AAA in the state. Their fine record can be attributed to their Coaches, Mr. Mouton, and Brother Guy, and the determination to excel.

Lynn Attebery, Ricky Abide, Parris Gordon and Joe Tate Evans were selected as the top athletes and are seen with their awards.

Mr. Paquette receives an award for his contributions to the best football programs in the state.

Lynn Attebery receives an award for his outstanding services to the Paul's Athletic Association.

One of the co-Jimmy Dunn winners (best all around athlete) was by Abide.

R. Mayronne former Jimmy Dunn winner gives the other Jimmy Dunn winner, Parris Gordon, his award.

and Griener, also a former Jimmy Dunn winner, presents Joe Tate Evans with the Student-Athlete Award which is given to the athlete with highest average.

1972 Valedictory Speeches

Joseph T. Evans:

Good afternoon. Because all of you are members of Saint Paul's community, we extend our warmest welcome. In today's world, the success of a class is usually judged by its accomplishments in athletic and intellectual endeavors. We have produced these accomplishments. Yet, we have also accomplished a much greater feat, though a feat that is much more subtle. This senior class of Saint Paul's has succeeded in uniting as a class, sharing in a bond of friendship. It has taken many long years to accomplish this, but, hopefully, it will last forever.

Joseph T. Spaletta:

I have spent many hours trying to compose this address. Trying to capture my feelings about Saint Paul's. Deep feelings defy complete expression, but I will attempt to explain why St. Paul's means so much to me. I would like to share these feelings with you, because they are a part of me, a part of us. In assessing the quality of a school, academic considerations are of paramount importance. Saint Paul's has academic renown. But it also offers an added dimension, that of a social warmth and closeness, that of a community acceptance. I do not use the word community lightly, I use it in its truest sense. Our community enables us to honestly share ideas, beliefs, and feelings. It enables us to share ourselves.

Joseph T. Evans:

We are a group of different individuals. We are made up of musicians, actors, athletes, intellectuals, blacks, whites, liberals, conservatives, Americans, and foreigners. Out of these many has come one. This community has made possible many of the accomplishments we have achieved this year. And, we have achieved much this year, much more than anyone ever expected us to.

This graduation represents the culmination of our great senior year. We are gathered together for the first time to celebrate the completion of our high school careers. As the disciples finally became one with the Holy Spirit on Pentecost, we truly become one as the class of '72 with this celebration.

Joseph T. Spaletta:

I have a great love for Saint Paul's and what it stands for . . . that true sense of Christian brotherhood, love and dedication. We find these qualities exemplified in our faculty — a family of Christian brothers, lay men and women who have more than an academic concern, theirs is a personal love.

Joseph T. Evans:

We must soon depart and go our own ways throughout the nation and the world. We must take our spirit of togetherness with us and stay united as the class of '72 even if only in spirit.

Joseph T. Spaletta:

From my vantage point, I recognize the people of Saint Paul's as genuine. There are no elitist airs. There is no coldness, no hypocrisy. The relationships I have experienced here are sincere. This type of social climate is not bestowed. It represents a complete cultural development. As freshmen, we were characterized by affectations. Gradually, tempered by what has become the Saint Paul's tradition, these fronts have become unnecessary. As a result, we are more our true selves. Saint Paul's has been a place where I have grown. I have learned to accept people more and more. I have learned to share myself more.

Joseph T. Evans:

In the future, we must strive for life with joy, with energy. We must make ourselves the best we possibly can and give everything we have to our struggle. Even in failure, we must continue striving. If we sit back and let life come to us, it will have no meaning and, if it has no meaning, there is no need for living.

Joseph T. Spaletta:

All graduation exercises carry with them the thrill of achievement. We have long and eagerly awaited this moment. Now, its arrival finds me with mixed emotions. I do not want to leave the Saint Paul's that I have experienced . . . the way of life it has become for me.

Joseph T. Evans:

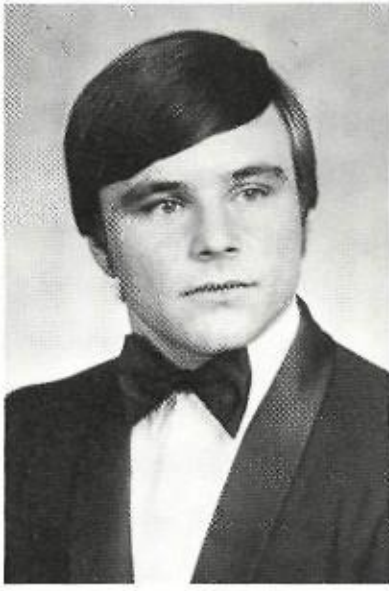

Every individual in our class has the potential for leadership. As individual leaders, we can do much in this world. But, as a class of leaders, united, we can do so much more. Thus, as we go through life, we must exhibit the oneness, the friendship, the unity we have achieved at Saint Paul's. We must live it. In living it, we will unite the people around us. Thus may we carry our unity to the nation and the world.

We, as the Saint Paul's class of '72, can make a big impression in this world. We should all pray that our experiences at Saint Paul's have prepared us for the pathway to success.

Joseph T. Spaletta:

How fitting it is to call graduation a commencement. For it is truly a beginning. In this spirit of beginning . . . we, as graduates, realize that we are not leaving Saint Paul's, we are extending it.
